POSTGRADUATE TRAINING AND FELLOWSHIP APPOINTMENTS

2003-2005      Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of Psychiatry,
University of Vermont
(Advisors: Thomas M. Achenbach, Ph.D. & Stephanie H. McConaughy, Ph.D.)

FACULTY APPOINTMENTS

2005-Present      Assistant Professor, Northeastern University,
Department of Counseling and Applied Educational Psychology

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2003-2005      Project Director, “Child Behavior Study” (NICHD). Responsible for coordinating data collection across three sites (NY, PA, VT), creating an extensive database, coordinating training of data collectors, performing data analyses, and conducting structured clinical interviews with parents.

2001-2002      Assistant Project Director, “Prevention of Behavioral Deficits in Young ADHD Children” (NIMH). Responsible for contributing to the development of multiple intervention protocols for preschool-aged children at-risk for ADHD, training and supervision of data-collectors and database managers, development of dependent measures, data analyses, and design and maintenance of project web site.

2000-2001      Project Coordinator-Database Manager/Analyst, “Promoting Academic Achievement in ADHD Children” (NIMH). Developed a specialized observation code, produced training protocols and manuals for both a function-based academic intervention and a comparison academic intervention, directed training activities for academic consultants and data collectors, created an extensive data-base using SPSS, supervised data collection and data entry, and performed all statistical analyses.
